DEMOCRATIC TROUBLES.

Harper's Weekly says that the Democratic Party approaches the Presidential Election of 1884 with the prestige of an overwhelming victory at the last Congressional elections, and intrenched in the control of more State Governments than it has ever before held. Under such circumstances the situation would be full of promise if the party were heartily united in support of a well-defined, aggressive policy. And yet the prospect of a Democratic victory in the approaching national campaign is far from encouraging. Every unprejudiced observer recognizes the fact that the result of the elections of last Fall were not so much Democratic victories as they were Republican defeats; not so much expression of confidence in the opposition as a rebuke of the methods of the party in power. In other words, the independent voters, who hold the balance of power, utterly dissatisfied with the Republicans, decided to give their opponents another chance to demonstrate their capacity for government, but withheld their final approval until they should see how the chance was improved.

In order that the Democrats should carry the country in a Presidential election, it is necessary that they should develop a positive, incoherent policy on vital questions of public concern, and inspire voters with confidence in their intention to execute such a policy in good faith. So far from this being the case, the party appears incapable of taking a pronounced position on a single issue. The most striking illustration of this fact yet presented occurred at the recent banquet of the Iroquois Club in Chicago—an occasion which was rendered notable by the attendance of prominent Democratic leaders from all parts of the country, and which had been arranged for the special purpose of formulating a policy. Senator Bayard, of Delaware, was the most conspicuous figure, but his high flown speech will be searched in vain for any outspoken deliverance. On the tariff question, which has come to be one of the chief issues, his utterances were carefully weighed and ingeniously designed to satisfy free-traders without alarming protectionists. Other speakers did indeed show more courage in declaring for free-trade; but Mayor Harrison, who made the only really frank speech of the evening, exposed at once the danger of the party's position and the insincerity of its leaders. He told them, in so many words, that the Democrats are not united on this question, that a "tariff for revenue only" plank next year would defeat them again, as it did in 1880, and that the only hope of success was to try to hoodwink the public.

The Mayor's unexpected speech naturally provoked great indignation among the managers of the banquet, but he only told the truth. The majority of the Democrats, no doubt, favor free trade, but a large and growing minority believe in protection. In Pennsylvania, not a Democratic member of Congress would dare to advocate free trade. In New Jersey, Democratic papers may preach revenue reform volubly and persistently, but Senator McPherson showed, by his votes at the last session, his conviction that a Democratic Senator from New Jersey must support protection, if he would conform to public opinion. In one after another of the Southern States the old free-trade traditions are giving away, and Congressmen from that section are pronouncing for protection. In short, the more loudly that Henry Watkinson, one of the leading Southern journalists, calls for free trade, the more closely does the Democratic party stop its ears and refuse to follow where he would lead.

The trouble with the Democracy is that they have not the courage of their convictions. Instead of displaying a manly fidelity to the principle, the only idea of the leaders seems to be to capture the country by some cunning device. Unfortunately for the success of such a scheme, the average voter in these days has his eyes wide open, and is not to be blinded by the glamour of "glittering generalities," or beguiled by false pretensions to his own undoing.

James Nutt, on Wednesday evening, at Uniontown, Pennsylvania, shot and killed N. L. Dukes, his father's murderer and his sister's seducer and defamer.

Besides 35,000 volumes of books, the library of Hubert Bancroft, of San Francisco, contains 6,000 manuscripts and 400 files of Pacific Coast newspapers.

On his library, building and literary labors, (not counting twenty years of his time,) Mr. Hubert Bancroft has expended over half a million in money.

STAR ROUTE VERDICT.

The Star Route cases have at last been decided, and the verdict of the jury will be far from satisfactory to the people. The Government had a good case, judging from the published accounts, but Ingersoll captured the jury, it seems. The verdict gave satisfaction, apparently, to Washington folks, for it was applauded with wild shouts, and Brady and Dorsey were heartily congratulated and cheered. Five ballots were taken by the jury. The first ballot was upon the question of a conspiracy, and the ballot resulted in 3 for to 9 against conspiracy. On the second ballot the 9 was increased to 10, although the vote was then upon the innocence or guilt of the defendants. This vote remained unchanged until the fifth ballot was taken, when an acquittal was agreed upon.

John Bright on the United States.

John Bright delivered an address, Wednesday, at Bengley Hall, Birmingham, before an audience of over 20,000 persons. More than 150 congratulations from various Liberal associations were presented to him. Great enthusiasm prevailed. Mr. Bright reviewed the events of the last fifty years, and laid stress upon the enormous advantages conferred upon the country by the repeal of the Corn laws. Referring to America, Bright said: "Permit me to address a word to the artisan classes in the United States. I am a friend of the United States. I fought her battles in this country. [Cheers.] I sympathize with her as much now as then; almost as much as if born on her soil. I believe the question in the United States between a protective and simply a revenue tariff is nearing its solution. The opinion is growing that irresistible economic facts are offering themselves for the consideration of her statesmen and every intelligent man in the great Republic. An extraordinary condition of things exist there. No country of any age ever experienced or dreamed of an actual surplus revenue of thirty millions sterling. This fact is fatal to the high protection party. The Government does not know what to do with it." After an eloquent allusion to the war which abolished slavery, Bright said: "I believe the next election for President will be fought on free trade lines. The great people of the United States will declare it to be the inalienable right of every American citizen to spend his money in the world's cheapest markets."

Signal Service.

Congress having reduced the appropriation for the next fiscal year the immediate discontinuance of the following named stations is made necessary and ordered: Eagle Pass, Texas; Eagle Rock, Idaho; Fort Keogh, Montana; Fort Missoula, Montana; Pioche, Nevada; Punta Ressa, Florida; Rochester, New York; Springfield, Missouri; Tucson, Arizona Territory; Visalia, California; Waskia Fort, Wyoming Territory, and Winemucca, Nevada. The following named stations of the third class will hereafter be maintained at stations of the first class: Custer Fort, Montana; Rio Grande, Texas.

The Northern Pacific Railroad Reaches Helena.

The construction train and first locomotive of the Northern Pacific Railroad arrived at Helena, M. T., at 11 A. M. Tuesday, amid the shouts and rejoicings of the people, many of whom had never seen a train or heard the scream of the iron horse. The day was warm and bright and the great body of the citizens of Helena were out in carriages and on horseback, viewing the track-layers as they passed in front of the town.

The Department of State has been apprised by Bingham, United States Minister at Tokio, Japan, of the delivery to the Government of Japan of the Treasury draft for $785,000, the amount of the indemnity fund returned to that Government by the United States. In accepting the sum, the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Japan expresses in the most cordial terms the appreciation of his Government at the equity and justice constantly manifested by the United States toward Japan and alludes with much satisfaction to the present happy relations existing between the people of both countries.

"THE STATE OF TAHOMA."—It is now proposed to change the name of Washington Territory upon her admission to the Union as a State to Tahoma, which is said to be the proper orthography for the name usually written Tahoma. Tahoma is an Indian word, meaning "almost to heaven," and was the name given by the Indians to Mount Ranier on account of the great height of that mountain, which is put down at 14,000 feet above the level of the sea.

ESMERALDA WIDOWS.—The Bodie Free Press says: "Esmeralda county has four widows, none of them having less than $25,000." Now that this news has gone forth a large influx of prospectors may be expected in Esmeralda, in the vicinity of these widow lodges.—Enterprise.

THE PACIFIC STATES HISTORIAN.

Hubert H. Bancroft was born at Granville, Ohio, in 1832. His parents were from New England. Boys were expected to work in those days—to work during Summer and attend school in the Winter. At the age of sixteen Mr. Bancroft entered the bookstore, in Buffalo, of his brother-in-law, George H. Derby, who, in 1852, sent him to California with a stock of books and stationery with which to begin business there. Mr. Derby died before the goods reached San Francisco; but true to the original purpose, Mr. Bancroft, in 1856, opened in a modest way the establishment which in less than thirty years was one of the largest of the kind in the world. Shortly after beginning business he began collecting material for a History of the Pacific States, by which term is signified the western half of North America, from Alaska to Panama, including all of Central America and Mexico. After gathering all that America would yield he several times visited Europe, always with marked success, until his collection numbered 35,000 volumes. Then he erected a brick building specially for his library on Valencia street, in San Francisco, easy of access by cable cars that run from the ferry at the foot of Market street.

But long before this he began to write. He studied hard, and wrote diligently. History was his aim; to gather and preserve the experiences of men, and place them in a clear condensed form within the reach of all other men—this was his object. As preliminary to his historical series, in 1875 he published the Native Races of the Pacific States in 5 volumes, which was received with universal commendation throughout the world. The most eminent scholars of Europe and America were lavish in their praise of it. Then came the History of the Pacific States, which is indeed a series of histories, all together covering the entire coast, one-twelfth the earth's surface, and probably the greatest work of the kind ever undertaken by mortal man.

No Right to Do It.

The Lakeview Examiner records this: A couple of weeks ago a number of posters were printed calling the attention of immigrants to vacant government land on the west side of Goose lake. These posters were put up all the way down the road, but since then they have nearly all been torn down, either by some one interested in retarding the settlement of this valley, or at the instigation of some one who is so interested. The simple fact that some stockmen do not care to have the country settled does not necessarily give them a title to all the land in sight, nor does it give them any right to tear down the posters or any other notices unless posted upon property belonging to them.

Some men are born makers of phrases. John Sherman, two or three years ago, coined one that had a great run in political circles when he said he was going home to Ohio to "mend his fences." More recently he contributed another, when he excused himself from the performance of a public duty by explaining that he was busy "trimming his trees." If anybody knows how to play Cincinnati it is John Sherman.—Alta.

Washoe county owes the State $1,144 54 but the State is indebted to the county $1,187 27, thus leaving the State in debt to the county. If the little balance is not settled pretty soon the people of Washoe county will go up to Carson, levy on the State Prison and snatch it down to Reno.—Enterprise.

There is room for the entire population of the United States, and to spare, if they were located on a twenty mile belt on each side of the railroad between San Francisco and New York.—Post.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

BREVITIES.

Thunder storm yesterday afternoon.
Reno strawberries will be in market next week.

Sam Stauway is still nursing his broken toe.

John P. Cannon is back from the northern country.

J. A. Templar and R. E. Ross were in from Long Valley yesterday.

Pete Marker is all right. He paid a visit to Virginia yesterday.

Reno was favored with a short and sweet shower yesterday afternoon.

A. C. McFarlin last evening marketed the first Reno strawberries of the season.

J. Abbe is building the new road from Verdi to the new bridge on the Truckee.

Al Lyman has bought a house in Wadsworth and will shortly remove his family to that place.

A. Nichols, the newly-elect Grand Master of the Masons, came down from Virginia last night, on his way home to Austin.

B. F. Bobo, Tom Hymers and A. Sauterne leave for Susanville this morning to be on hand to-morrow night when Geo. H. Cunningham takes the Knights Templar degrees.

C. W. Wilton, the young man who obtained $10 worth of goods from A. J. Clark on a false order from Knox, pleaded guilty to obtaining goods under false pretenses, and has been sent up for 90 days.

Richard B. Mercer, of Gold Hill, was a passenger for the Bay last night. For twenty-three years he has been in business at Gold Hill, but has shaken the dust from his feet, and gone to California to engage in business.

The Central and Southern Pacific roads are considering the advisability of running Pullman dining cars in connection with the Pullman Sleepers. Should such a change be determined upon many a hotel keeper's occupation will be gone.

Con Cutler, who has been at work on a large mine in the Oshipe district, Sonora, for the last seventeen years, has effected a sale for $350,000. Cutler will realize $87,500 as his share. So says the San Francisco Examiner. Mr. Cutler is a brother of Mrs. W. N. Knox, of Reno.

A LOSS TO RENO.

The Railroad Time Tables Peculiarly Injurious to Reno.

The change of time on the Central Pacific and Virginia and Truckee Railroads, to take effect July 1st, will greatly injure Reno station peculiarly. The town now has the benefit of lodging travelers from the East and those going East, but under the new arrangements, connections are so close, that Reno will receive but little benefit from the traveling public, and should dining cars be put on by Pullman, Reno will hardly receive six bits a day from the railroad travel. The V. & T. passenger train men, who now call Reno their home, will also be taken from us, and after the 1st Virginia will be their headquarters.

Drowned in Walker Lake.

The Carson Tribune says that John McKenna, insurance agent and Notary Public of Hawthorne, Esmeralda county was drowned Wednesday evening in Walker Lake. It has been the habit of many citizens of Hawthorne to go to the lake to bathe these warm days, and whether McKenna's death was intentional on his own part or accidental is not known. McKenna was in Carson during the session of the Legislature, and got up the homographic chart.

The Picnic To-morrow.

Preparations have been made to insure a good time to all who attend the picnic at the Riverside Grounds. The grounds are in trim condition, and the boat, croquet ground, dance floor, etc., all in order for enjoyment. The refreshment stand will be bountifully supplied with eatables and drinkables. A moonlight dance is to conclude the pleasures of the day.

State Fair.

Theo. Winters was in town yesterday. He informed a JOURNAL reporter that he would do all in his power toward having a State Fair; he would aid with money, and bring all his horses here. He thought our people ought to be up and doing in the matter, as no time was to be lost.

Ice Cream Parlors.

Auguste Bourgeois has fitted up an ice cream saloon in the rooms lately occupied by Yankee Dodge. He has also a fine stock of home-made candies. See ad.

The Hercules Powder.

This powder is the very best of the high explosives. It is always the same, and unlike some of the powders, its numbers always indicate its strength. It is a favorite among miners everywhere, and its sale covers three-fifths of all powder sold on the Coast.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Dear Sir—For many months I was a great sufferer. Physicians could afford me no relief. In my despair I commenced the use of your "Favorite Prescription." It speedily effected my entire and permanent cure. Yours thankfully, Mrs. PAUL R. BAXTER, Iowa City, Ia.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. feb. 21—swt-lyr.

The most healthy and popular drink of the season is the ice cold soda water, sparkling with purest gas and flavored with true, delicious fruit syrups, to be had only at Queen's soda fountain.

The best known remedy for coughs and colds is the Infallible Cough Mixture prepared by Osburn & Shoemaker.

A splendid stock of fresh garden, field and flower seeds just received at Osburn & Shoemaker's.

STATE NEWS.

Nevada ranchmen are preparing for haying.

Big crops of all kinds will be made this season in Mason Valley.

Regular daily shipments of 18 and 20 tons of ore are being made from the Eureka Tunnel to the Eureka Con. works.

The Record says there are 114 children in Pioche School District between 6 and 18 years of age, and 49 under 6 years of age.

The Ward Reflex says "the danger of losing Cleve is not great, as the man who has got money enough to buy Cleve out will be hard to find."

Edward Connor, Nevada's new cadet, son of Gen. P. M. Connor, arrived from California Monday night and will remain at Eureka for several months.

The stockmen of Elko will begin a rodeo on the 1st of June in Dixie Valley, working eastward to Halleck, south of the railroad, and then north of the railroad westward to Sasie creek.

A seven-foot body of ore, assaying as high $4,000 to the ton, was encountered in the Monitor mine, in Taylor District, a few days ago. Some estimate that it will average $1,500, while others put it at $1,000.

It is estimated, says the Ward Reflex, that at least one hundred men are at work in Taylor District at various occupations. There are also many more in the District who are unable to find employment.

The house-moving business has become quite an industry in Ward. They all go to Taylor. At the present rate all the vacant houses will be in position on the other side of Steptoe Valley inside of two months, if not before.

The bullion production of Nye county for the year 1892 was as follows: Gold, $25,000; silver, $230,000. Judging from present indications the production of gold and silver bullion for 1893 will be considerably greater than that of 1892.

The numerous friends of P. Everts, formerly Superintendent of the E. & P. Railroad, will regret to learn that he is laid up at Sacramento with a violent attack of rheumatism. He has abandoned his intended visit to Europe, owing to his late affliction.

Dave Dennett had the fingers of his left hand badly crushed Monday, the 4th, by having them caught in the cog that raise and lower the gate at the bottom of the ore chute in the Martin White tunnel. All the fingers will doubtless be saved, but he is in big luck to have a finger in condition to be saved.

The JOURNAL job office has just received a large and fine stock of paper, cards, inks, etc., for job printing and is prepared to take orders for every description of work in the printing line. Various Quacks.

Who, Each for His Own Pet Scheme, Cultivate the Field Human Nature.

There have always been quacks—legal quacks, theological, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are blind, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be profitably done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic neckbrace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in woolen blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert in electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly over-stated. What is the strongest possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPSINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it needs no further apology now introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capsine the compliment of their dislike, as Eatin is said to hate holy water.

Look in the middle of the plaster for the word "CAPSINE." Price 25 cents. Seabury & Johnson, Chemists, New York.

Our Spring and Summer Price-List No. 33, has made its appearance—improved and enlarged. Over 200 pages. Over 3,000 illustrations. Contains quotations, descriptions and illustrations of nearly all articles in general use, from Adam and Eve to Sitting Bull and Mrs. Langtry. It costs us 25 cents for every copy we mail—nearly $50,000 per annum. It makes our hair red to think of it. We should have the cost of production. The book is full of brains. Send for it, and enclose 25 cents—anything or nothing—Let us hear from you. Respectfully,
